SPRING 2019

annette betz

Dear colleagues and friends,

I am pleased to share with you the 2019 Spring Foreign Rights List of our Imprints Annette Betz & Ueberreuter.

Our wonderful Excellence-award winner Katharina Grossmann-Hensel presents her new Picture Book "Grandmapa are the best!". This time it is about grandparents and their lovely relationship to their grandchildren told and illustrated in Katharina`s warmhearted and humorous style. Her previous books have been sold to nine countries.

With "Manners for Beginners" we have an other important topic after "Tidying-up for Beginners" and "Falling asleep for Beginners" in our great picture books series "....for Beginners".

Also please take a look on the artistic illustrations by Susanne Smajic in the musical picture book "Peter and the Wolf".

Among our Children`s Books do not miss the funny "Gang on the Roof": Owl and Weasel take over the city. Be careful! With our "Midnight-school – The first hour of ghosting " it turns spooky.

The gripping YA novel "Heartmaker" invites you to join the fascinating adventure of Leo, who is capable to bring mechanical hearts of dolls to life.

Please browse through our list and take a look on our great new books. Let me know if you like to receive more information, PDFs or reading copies. And if you will be attending the upcoming Children`s Bookfair in Bologna, please visit us in Hall 30 | Stand E 2.

I am looking forward to hearing from you!

With warm wishes

Katharina Grossmann-Hensel studied Illustration in Hamburg. She lived for three years in Paris, where she published her first picture book. She currently lives in Berlin and works as a freelance author and illustrator for several publishers.

- For the new generation of grandparents without a bun and a walking stick!
- A humorous depiction of grandmas, grandpas, grandchildren and their special relationship with one other
- Includes a finding game: who can find the dog and the owl on every page?

Grandmapa are the best!

‘This is Grandmapa. They like to travel a lot, but sometimes they’re at home too. And then I visit them!’ This is how a little girl introduces her grandparents. After all, the visits to her grandparents are very special- they enthusiastically play hide and seek, even if Grandma is the worst at hiding in the world and grandpa is the worst at lying... but maybe that’s what makes it so fun?

Katharina Grossmann-Hensel dedicates this picture book to the particularly unique relationship between grandchildren and grandparents. Whether it is crying from laughter or from being moved, there will surely not be a dry eye left after reading this book!

Brigitte Weninger born in 1960 in Kufstein, Austria, and worked as an educator with small children for twenty years. In 1995, her first children's books were published by Michael Neugebauer Verlag. Since then, Brigitte Weninger has published more than 50 books, which have been translated into some 30 languages and won many awards.

Katharina Sieg, born 1982 in Lippstadt, studied illustration in Hamburg, where she now lives as a freelance illustrator. Her pictures are full of funny and surprising ideas.

- An animal story full of humour
- A creative handling of every day life

An umbrella for all occasions

When the Woodsman's boy's umbrella is blown away by the wild wind, the forest animals are astonished. Mrs Squirrel is convinced 'this is a jumpy cloud thing'. But the blackbird children think differently: 'It's obviously something to bounce about on!' How else can the umbrella be used? As a paddling pool for the mouse family or even as a shelter for rain?

But before it ends up in a fight, the wild wind comes again and the umbrella lands happily by the Woodsman's house.

A mischievous story about small and big riddles.

Elfe Marie Opiela, born in 1988, studied Illustration in Münster. Today she lives in Leipzig and illustrates Children`s Books. With this book she even started as an author.

When the forest animals were still naked

All animals used to be naked. But they found it too cold. So, the animals went to the beaver and asked him to make them funny furs: the tiger wanted big thorns and the frog wanted feathers. However, it quickly became obvious that these furs weren't practical in everyday life. The clever owl had an idea: a clothes swap party! That's how all the animals ended up with the fur in which we know them today.

Come and join us in our garden!

Susanne Riha takes us through the seasons in the garden: she gives detailed information and tells exciting stories about the animals, who have their perfect home in the diverse areas of the garden- whether in the flowerbed or in the vegetable patch, whether in the bushes, fruit trees or even in the compost pile.

The artistic pictures and easily readable texts make the garden, with its' abundance of plants and animals, more accessible and invites you in to new discoveries!

- A many-sided children's non-fiction book concerning the topic of manners
- Interesting information funnily presented for children
- Tips and tricks from children for children

Kristina Dumas is an author and journalist. She has written numerous stories and articles for children. She is widely recognized for her Musical Picture Book series previously published and available from Annette Betz.

Ina Worms is a professional freelance artist for various agencies and publishers.

Manners for Beginners

The lazy pig behaves itself pretty badly. What do you even need manners for? Exactly this question and many others are answered in 'Manners for Beginners' - 'what are table manners? Where did they come from? What does being well-mannered mean in other cultures?' There is a lot to discover about this topic! For example: Table manners for the Greeks, the Romans and in the middle ages, kissing and hand shaking, the famous curtsy and lots more... well-mannered?... is dead easy with this book!

Sleeping beauty is...

... One of the third most performed ballet pieces in the world!

... 3rd place in the most loved Disney princesses!

... One of the most famous and loved fairy tales worldwide!

Heinz Janisch writes books for children and adults. He has earned many literary honors for his work.

Birgit Antoni illustrates board books, picture books and early readers for a variety of publishers. Her extraordinary books are frequently translated and highly reviewed.

- Tschaikowsky's world famous ballet for little ones
- Fairytale and music artistically described by Heinz Janisch
- An accompanying CD with musical highlights and explanations

Sleeping Beauty

An angry fairy, a princess under a spell, a sleeping castle society and a prince who is in love- all ingredients for a well-loved fairy tale and a world famous ballet.

Heinz Janisch excitingly and entertainingly brings classical music to life for children. The enclosed CD includes an especially composed selection of music and a story, which the author himself wrote. Happy, colourful illustrations by Birgit Antoni invite the reader to discover, dance and enjoy the music.

A book full of music, dance and fairy tale magic.

Peter and the Wolf

The instruments of the orchestra tell a story ...

Peter opens the garden gate and goes to the big field early in the morning. His Grandpa, however, gets annoyed as he left the gate open. 'That's dangerous. What if the wolf comes out of the forest, huh?'. But Peter isn't afraid. Along with his friends, the little bird, the cat and the duck, he once and for all takes it up with the wolf!

In the famous musical fairy tale by Sergej Prokofjew the instruments of an orchestra are tunefully introduced.

The Moldova

With the Moldova, the composer Friedrich Smetana transforms the river of his homeland into a monument, which is known all over the world. This book enables small and big music fans to float along the lovely current of an exciting musical journey. From the source to the capital city of Prague, listen to the tones of the water and let yourself be enchanted by fairies, townsfolk and knights, by classic wedding music and the sound of a hunt, by explosive currents and the calm and soft tones of the night.

Friedrich Smetana's masterpiece incomparably presented in picture, sound and words.

Peer Gynt

Peer Gynt is a dare devil and invents the funniest stories ever. He constantly wants to prove himself- he'd like to become the Kaiser most of all! He experiences the craziest of adventures because of this, like when he steals a bride from a groom, nearly marries the daughter of a mountain king, is perceived as a prophet in the desert or when he survives a tumultuous storm on a ship. When he finally returns to his homeland Norway, he recognises that the love of his youth and his luck have been awaiting him. Marko Simsa and Doris Eisenburger present world famous melodies and thrilling adventures in a very special musical picture book.

Our Autumn Highlight

It's Good to be Different

There's a strange egg in the nest! Of course, Mrs. Blackbird notices it immediately. But what does one egg more or less matter, she thinks? So she looks after it like one of her own and...it hatches! But instead of a cuckoo, as everyone expected, it's a dragon that slips out of the egg. And he is so completely different from the rest of the Blackbird family, which causes all kinds of chaos. But when winter arrives, the little dragon has his big day.

Who could have known just how beautiful it could be to be different?
